Jefferson Health MyChart Terms and Conditions for Use: Your Responsibilities

Please review the following Terms and Conditions for Use. You must observe the Terms and Conditions for Use described below when using Jefferson Health MyChart.

I AGREE THAT:

1) I will not share my username and password with anyone.

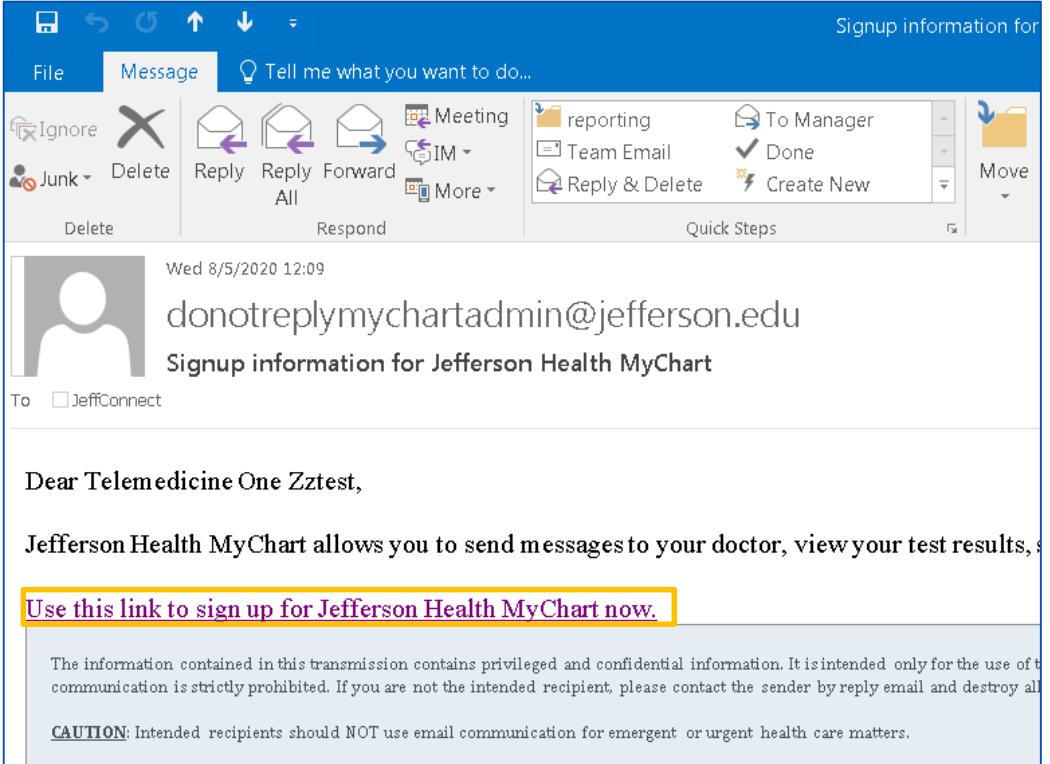

2) I will not send any messages through Jefferson Health MyChart that require urgent or emergent attention. I will call 9-1-1 in the case of an emergency. I understand that turnaround time for responses is usually two (2) business days, but may vary by individual physician or practice. Jefferson does not guarantee that I will receive a response to any particular message. If I have not received a response within a reasonable time and feel the message must be addressed, I should call my physician or my physician's office.

3) I will be notified by e-mail when there is new medical information to be viewed on Jefferson Health MyChart. This means that any person with access to my e-mail will be able to see this notification. This could include my spouse, dependent, employer or anyone else that can access my email account. Although no private medical information will be included in the e-mail, the notification that new medical information is available by accessing Jefferson Health MyChart may be information that I would not want others to know. Thus, I should take this into consideration when providing an e-mail address. I am responsible to make sure that my contact information is accurate and up-to-date

ACCEPT DECLINE

If you did not receive an Activation Code, but instead received an E-mail from your doctor to Sign Up, you will need to click the Link within the email and complete all the needed information.

The screenshot shows an email inbox with a single message selected. The message is from donotreplymychartadmin@jefferson.edu and is titled "Signup information for Jefferson Health MyChart". The message body starts with "Dear Telemedicine One Zztest," and ends with a call to action: "Use this link to sign up for Jefferson Health MyChart now." A cautionary note at the bottom of the message body states: "The information contained in this transmission contains privileged and confidential information. It is intended only for the use of the intended recipient. It is strictly prohibited to forward this message to anyone else. If you are not the intended recipient, please contact the sender by reply email and destroy all copies of this message." The "File" and "Message" tabs are visible at the top, along with various email management buttons like "Ignore", "Delete", "Reply", "Forward", and "IM".

Once you press the Link in your E-mail, your browser will open to this page, where you must enter all need information.

- Step 1: Choose a Username.
- Step 2: Create a Password.
- Step 3: Enter your Date of Birth.
- Step 4: Enter your ZIP Code.
- Step 5: Check the “I agree to terms” box, then click “SUBMIT” to finish registration.
